

Looking for Material Handling Solutions?

Go for the Gold!

MHEDA Member Companies Represent the Gold Standard of the Material Handling World.

If you want to do business with the most capable and respected companies offering material handling equipment and services, look to a MHEDA Member. MHEDA is the Material Handling Equipment Distributors Association, a trade organization that helps drive the proficiency of its member companies located across North America. MHEDA Members have access to the best training programs targeting all employees, best practice benchmarking and management development tools.

MHEDA Members Are

- Material Handling solutions providers
- Dedicated to continuous learning
- Serious about industry best practices
- Responsive to customer needs
- Respected industry professionals

Contact a MHEDA Member Today!

Purchase your material handling equipment and services from one of the premier companies in the material handling industry, considered the “best of the best” by the suppliers they represent.

Visit www.mheda.org and click on Member Directory to establish your gold partnership today!

